SUBJECT: Flooding update: Veterans – Fillmore County

If you are a Veteran with a service connected disability affected by the recent flooding, you may be eligible for assistance through the Disabled American Veterans.

On Thursday June 19th and Friday June 20th from 10:00 am to 3:00 p.m., a representative from Disabled American Veterans will be in Preston. The representative will be at the Fillmore County Office Building (lower level) assisting Veterans who suffered loss due to the floods not covered by insurance and were displaced from their home. Interested Veterans can come to the Office Building during that time period to meet with this representative. No appointments are required.

If you have questions call Fillmore County Veteran Service Office at 507 765-4937.
